Belmont Mass. Jan. 21-2[illegible]

Gentlemen

Pardon me for asking you for an advice about a rare Coin Collection that was saved from the Bolsheviki in Russia, it is owned by my brother in law who now lives in Kopenhagen Denmark The Collection Containes 4000 different coins from all parts of the world, but especially from Russia, Poland, Roman and Asiatic coins. Coins from the time before Christ, also a collection of 116 medals The collection is now in Kopenhagen but I expect a

Catalouge from there, he has written to me and asked to help and sell the Collection, perhaps You know of some prospective donator

Hope You will excuse for bothering, and Kindly let me hear from you

Respectfully Yours

Olof Anderson

33 Unity ave.

Belmont 78

Mass.

P. S. It has taken him 40 years to collect those Coins

D. S.

JAN 25 1921

Referred by
The Metropolita
Museum of Art
to the American Numismatic
Society
25/Jan/21

January 26th, 1921

Mr. Olof Anderson
53 Unity Avenue
Belmont 78, Mass.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of January 21st addressed to the Metropolitan Museum has been referred to this Society.

If you will send us the catalogue when you receive it, it is possible that we may be able to advise you, but your description at present is so incomplete that it is difficult to help you at this point. I would suggest your taking the matter up again when the catalogue is received.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

SPR/E